LOCAL MATTERS.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES .- War Department, Office of the Chief Signal Officer, Washington, D. C., Nov. 9, 1877-10:30 a. m.-For the Middle Atlantic and South Atlantic States colder, clear or partly cloudy weather, preceded by rain areas, northwest winds, rising barometer.

INSTALLATION .- A correspondent of the Washington Star, writing from Falls Church, says :-

The ordination ceremonics and the installa-tion of Rev. L. B. Platt, of Baltimore, as pastor of the Congregational Church of this village, which took place last evening, was an occasion which drew together a large number of our citizens, filling the hall of Jefferson Institute to overflowing. Several churches were represented by pastors and delogates; besides we noticed quite a number of ladies and gentlemen present from Baltimore and Washington. The singing was conducted by a quartette of gentlemen :-Messrs. Dailey, Harrington, Stone and L. H. Latham, of Baltimore. The selections and the harmony of the voices were most enjoyable. Rev. L. T. Burbank, of Herndon, Va., opened the exercises by reading a portion of Scriptuce and offering prayer. Dr. J. E. Rankin, of Washington, preached the sermon, choosing for his text Ezekiel, 33d chapter, and 321 verse. Rev. T. J. Holmes, of Baltimore, delivered the charge to the paster; Dr. W. W. Patton, president of Howard University, offered the installatation prayer; Professor F. W. Fairfield, of Howard University, extended the night hard of fellowship, and Rev. J. W. Chickering, tho former pastor, delivered the charge to the poople. The entire exercises were most deeply interesting, and the good wishes of our eartie community are extended to this church and its new paster.

SYNODICAL NOTES .- Owing to the very in clement weather and the consequent small attendance, the subject of foreign missions was not taken up last night by the Synod, but the regular routine business was proceeded with. The missionary meeting to be held to night at half-past seven o'clock will be addressed by Rev. Dr. Wilson and other prominent gentle

The sessions of the Synod to day were attended by very large congregations, and much interest was manifested in the case of Rev. Dr. E. T. Baird, which was noder consideration. The Synod will not adjourn before to morrow night, and possibly not then

Among the delegates to the Synod is Mr. Logan, of Winchester, who now, for the first time since he left here, fifty years ago, revisits the city of his birth.

The members of the Syand will fill the various pulpits of the city on Sunday. The list of appointments is published elsewhere.

THE WEATHER, - Last night there was one of the heaviest rain storms that have visited this section for a long time. There was considerable wind, and the rain came down in torrents. The streets were flooded for a time, and the gutters became miniature runs. The streets were nearly deserted, and only those who were compelled to be so were out. The rain continned during the entire night, and until after daylight this morning. The tide rose quite high last night, but did not overflow the wharves. The runs and creeks in the adjoinhour this morning were unable to cross Cameron Run, and had to come around by the lower road, across Hunting Creek bridge.

M. E. Church.-The special services contique to attract fair congregations at this church. Oa Wednesday night Rev. J. R. Wheeler preached from John iii. 16, "God so loved the world." & 2. Last night Rev. Dr. Leyburn preached an intensely interesting sermon from Luke xix., 41-2, "And when he was come near, he beheld the city and wept over it," &c. Owing to the storm of wind and rain the congregation was small, but those who were present were more than repaid for any inconvenience that they might have suffered in going out by the elequent discourse to which they listened. Rev. Richard Norris will preach to-night at

SUIT FOR DAMAGES .- The Washington R .publican says that the schooner Mary Jane, Capt. Wheeler, bound for Hatteras Point, Western Branch, Norfolk, Va., laden with 150 loads of manure, which was run into by the steamer Mary Washington October 26, opposite Fort Washington, and sunk in ten minutes in about three fathoms of water, is still lying where she went down. There is a movement on foot to compromise the matter between the owner of the schooner and the steamboat company. If the parties do not come to an amicable settlement the owner proposes to bring suit for the damage to his vessel and the loss of his

THE CANAL .- The Cumberland Alleganian of yesterday says :-

"The scarcity of boats here for a lew days past has been brought about by small deten tions from boats sinking here and there. This has prevented uniformity of departures, and has clustered together the boats into shoals. Boats have been going to the bottom because necessary repairs have not been made, owing to the unusual money stress among boatmen. Quite a number of boats have been weathering the present season that will have to be confined to the limbo of the unseaworthy craft next

POLICE ITEMS.—The following cases have been reported at police headquarters since yes-

Wm. Morgan, colored, charged with being an accomplice to an unlawful shooting, had his case rostponed until this evening. J. T. Burnett and Charles Scales, for disorderly conduct on election day, were dismissed. John Mullen, for being drunk and disorderly ness, and will be prepared to furnish families at the house of Emma Graham, was required with all kinds of CHOICE MEATS, all of my to give security to keep the peace.

SPECIAL SERVICES .- Rev. Mr. Rainsford preached his last sermon, in this city, at St. Paul's Church, last night. The congregation was a vary large one, considering the very in. element weather, the lower floor of the church being filled, and the galleries having several oc-cupants. Mr. Rainsford has won golden opicions from the people of this city, and the services conducted by him have been attended by the largest congregations ever seen here. The reverend gentleman left to-day for Boston, where he will conduct revival services. SUIT FOR AN ALEXANDRIA LOT.--In the suit entered by Mrs. Millar for the recovery of $30 000,000 worth of patent land, the property of her ancestor, John Young, formerly of this city, of which mention has heretofore been made, a certain lot of ground on Queen street, Alexandria, is included.

FOR THE ASYLUM, - Deputy Sergeant A. W. Armstrong will start to night for Richmond, having in charge James Fisher, a colored man Asylum.

PERSONAL - Among the candidates elected to the House of Delegates is Mr. Geo. Walker, of Northumberland, formerly of this city; among those defeated is Mr. Geo. Davis, of l'auquier, another old Alexandrian.

Colonel William Kilgour gave a handsome entertainment, at his residence, on Cameron street, last night, to the successful legislative candidates, and a few friends.

Mr. Oscar F. Baggett will have at his stall in the Royal street wing of the market build ing, to-morrow, some of the finest beef, veal and lamb brought to market this fall.

In the House of Representatives, yesterday, Mr. Hunton presented the petition Robert I. E lelen, of this city, for pay for labor and materials furnished the United States, which was referred to the Committee on War Claims, Railroad War.

Beston, Nov. 9 -The war between the Passumsic and Southeastern Railroads waxos hotter. To day two trains are stationed near the depot at Troy, Vermont, for thepurpose of preventing the Southeastern trains from passing through to Newport. No interference will be brooked by the Southeastern managers on the part of the Passumsic. They are prepared for any emergency. Strong forces of men are post-ed at intervals along the line and any attempt at wreck by the Passumsic will be frustrated. The town is full of people and there is much excitement. The trouble is further alvanced in consequence of the arrest of the president of the Passumsic road last evening.

The Synod now in session in this city was engaged yesterday evening in a discussion relative to the evangelization of the colored people. Whether Presbyterians are especially, or otherwise qualified for that work we are not prepared to say, but that the colored people should be evangel and by somebody, and as soon as possible, is an assertion the truth of which no housekeeper will deny.

He warmly culogized Mr. Sumner, combatting the allegation of his (Sumaer's) incompetency or tardiness, asserting that the reason for his removal from the Senate Foreign Relations Committee was on account of his antagonism to the proposed San Domingo acquisition. "Mr. Sumner," said Mr. Phillips, "said that Mr. Fish urged him to go to London as United States Minister, absent himself from the Senate and let San Domingo pass. For this Mr. Sumner rebuked him, and ever afterward their relations were cool and distant." After the lecture Mr. Phillips was warmly greeted by a number of prominent anti slavery people.

The aspect of financial affairs has undergone no material change since our last report. Business during the week has been only tolerably fair, the elections and the unfavorable weather interfering to some extent. Money is plentiful in the banks, and easily obtainable therefrom on good paper, but on the street there is still great complaint of the scarcity. In Baltimore we note money readily obtainable at 6 per cent on accepted security, and loans can be made at a trifle easier rates. Gold fluctuates but little, the quotations being 1027. Governments are lower somewhat, owing, it is said, to the action of Congross and the decline abroad. State securities are weaker, and the result of the election in this State for members of the Legislature has had a depressing effect upon Virginia consols, which have declined to 00, $11,000 selling yesterday at these figures, but afterward 50% was only bid; coupons are firmer, selling at 834.
